

Report Bullying or Harassment

Have you been hassled or pushed around by another student or students when you're at school?

If while on school property, you've ever been subject to:

Theft

Vandalism (having your personal property damaged)

Extortion (someone getting money from you "or else")

Physical violence or assault

Verbal or written threats

Teasing that goes too far

Gossip or rumors

Fear for your safety

then you might be the victim of a bully.

The law is on your side!

As a matter of fact, the law says that students have a right to come to school and learn in a safe and secure environment. If you - or anyone you know - are being victimized by a bully, or being harassed while in school, there are things that can be done to stop it.

The most important thing is to tell someone in authority about it.

Whether you go to a teacher, a counselor, the nurse, or straight to the Principal, let someone in charge know what's been happening to you. They care about you, and they will know what to do to make sure the situation is resolved.

Telling is not tattling when you don't feel safe

Your school and the school district are concerned about student safety. They want to make sure that all students have a safe learning environment.
