

We Take Threats Seriously

We Take Threats Seriously

And so should you.

All students have the right to expect a learning environment that is free from threats. Midlothian I.S.D. is concerned about student safety, and will work with parents and law enforcement to resolve safety issues.

If your student has been threatened by another student, it is important to report it to the school's office.

We're serious.

Midlothian Independent School District
www.midlothian-isd.net